Turkey Orhaniye Flotilla

Discover Turkey from the yacht bases at Fethiye and Orhaniye, ideally located to explore Turkey's ancient Lycian and Carian coasts. Each flotilla consists of two, one week routes, which when combined form a perfect two week flotilla.

The coast offers a fascinating blend of Crusader castles, ancient Roman baths and rock tombs all waiting to be explored. Freshly caught fish, meat dishes of lamb and beef are complemented on the menu each evening by a large selection of tasty Turkish Mezes. The local Turk's are amongst the friendliest and most welcoming people that you are likely to meet.

We sail west from Orhaniye at an easy pace, visiting secluded bays and hidden coves at Dirsek and Selimiye, then the old trading harbours at Datca, Palamut and Knidos with their wealth of ancient history. Later we turn southeast towards Sogut to enjoy a mouth-watering dinner at the renown 'Octopus' seafood restaurant.

Sailing south the following week, the flotilla visits the bustling harbour at Bozburun, home to gulet building. A firm favourite is the night spent at Bobs Bay restaurant in Serçe, then perhaps a night at anchor under the ruins of the ancient city of Loryma at Bozukkale. The flotilla returns to Orhaniye via an aptly named 'Sailor's Paradise'. Each evening there's an opportunity to dine on wonderful Turkish Mezes at family run restaurants. A true delight!

Fethiye Flotilla

charter@sunscapeyachting.co.uk

We set sail from the convenience of Ece Saray marina and head south, sailing in the beautiful fjord like Bay of Fethiye with its myriad of secluded coves and island anchorages. Each evening tying up to a rickety wooden jetty leading to bohemian style family run restaurants. Surrounded by shoals and ancient ruins the restaurant at Karacaoren is a must do for most crews, if lucky take a swim with the resident turtles. Take a lunch time swim off Olu Deniz or for the brave at Cold Water Bay. Heading back in to Fethiye Bay we dine Al fresco at Sarsala Creek or perhaps Tomb Bay. Distances are short within the bay itself, so there is always time for a leisurely lunch stop. As the wind strengthens toward midday we sail on to visit Deep Bay or perhaps the small town of Gökcek.

The second week sees the flotilla sail east out of Fethiye Bay to visit Ekinçik. Crews will want to take the water taxi up the Dalyan delta to explore the ancient city of Caunos and take to the mud baths – lots of fun! We return late afternoon hopefully to sail broadreaching in the fresh northerly breeze on to Kapi Creek to dine ashore with the table set close to the waters' edge. Then perhaps an evenings' entertainment courtesy of Rajep at 22 Fathom Cove – always a favourite for most crews. Life takes on a little more sophistication when the flotilla visits the Yacht Classic hotel and restaurant. Time to explore the market bazaar in Fethiye, then enjoy good company during the farewell flotilla dinner. – Well until next time!

Weather: Afternoon breezes mainly from the north-west. Force 2-5 during summer months with temperatures warmer than Greece at over 30°C.

Steeped in a mythical history and blessed with crystal-blue waters, explorations ashore reveal Byzantine churches, ancient temples and ruined fortresses, all bathed in the warmth of the county's exquisite climate. Each cruising area is unique, offering different experiences, challenges and scenic beauty.

Sailing the Peloponnese from Poros at the heart of the Saronic and Argolic Gulf's proves popular with most crews, particularly the less experienced and those looking for short daily sailing passages.

The Sporades, comprises of a chain of beautiful unspoilt 'film set perfect' islands, including Skopelos, Skiathos and Alonnisos stretching off the eastern shores of mainland Greece. This is a 'must do' sailing area for more experienced sailors.

The Ionian with its long coastline from Corfu in the north to Zakynthos in the south and a myriad of smaller islands in between form sheltered sailing waters, ideal for beginners and more experienced crews alike.

You can be assured of fresh sailing breezes whilst cruising the Dodecanese from Kos or Rhodes. Each land fall provides beautiful historic ports, picture postcard fishing harbours and secluded bays ideal for overnight anchorages.

Whichever cruising area you choose you will have endless opportunities to sample Greek culture at its very best in delightful hillside villages perfectly framed by whitewashed churches and bustling waterfronts with their colourful tavernas and restaurants.

Bareboat charter in Greece offers the widest choice of cruising destinations for independent sailing in any one country. From Poros explore the Saronic Gulf and Eastern Peloponnese coast, from Corfu the northern Ionian or from Lefkas the ever-popular southern Ionian Islands. From Rhodes harbour sail the Dodecanese Island chain or alternatively, charter a yacht from Skiathos and explore the Sporades with their spectacular white sandy beaches and hidden coves.

Below is a selection of yachts with a guide price. Call us, so we can advise on availability, possible offers and the travel options for your chosen cruising area.

"Just returned from a week sailing in Poros – what a wonderful cruising area and great company"

Greece Sporades Flotilla

The Sporades is a chain of beautiful unspoilt islands lying off the eastern coast of mainland Greece. From the Yacht base at Loutraki on the idyllic holiday island of Skopelos, the Pelion Route ventures west into the sheltered Gulf of Volos, in the shadow of the Pelion peninsula with its lush fertile hills, safe anchorages and timeless fishing villages. We visit sleepy Paleo Trikeri and historic Pegadi, from where Achilles set to sail for Troy. Our route back takes us to Koukounaries, famed for one of the Mediterranean's best beaches.

Our Sporades Route sails east from Loutraki and explores outlying islands such as Alonissos, with its scenic harbours at Patitira and Steni Vala. We head for the uninhabited islands of Peristeri, Xero or, weather permitting, Pelagos – also known as Kyra Panaghia, with its single resident and herds of wild goats. Before returning to Loutraki, we visit the charming Islands capital of Skopelos and some of the beautiful sheltered bays, each with fine beaches and traditional tavernas.

Sailing from the yacht base on Poros Island, the Saronic one-week flotilla sails a northern route around the islands of the Saronic Gulf, exploring quaint villages like the near land locked harbour at Vathi situated in the shadow of an extinct volcano and the picturesque fishing port at Perdika which offers wonderful views and spectacular sunsets. Our second one week cruise is the Argolic route sailing south to the popular larger islands of Hydra and Spetses and the sleepy fishing harbours of Ermioni, Astros or Plaka. The East Peloponnese route is a dedicated two week cruise that explores the southern ports of the Eastern Peloponnese coast, visiting Monemvasia, Greece's own mini Gibraltar and Leonidhion before venturing north into the Argolic Gulf to go ashore at Navplion to visit ancient Mycenae a city dating back to 1250 BC.

Croatia Dalmatia Flotilla

The gentle prevailing northerly winds during the summer months provide some great sailing. The flotilla makes good use of the sheltered coastal harbours and the many safe anchorages amongst the off lying islands. Cruising distances are generally short, so days are set at a leisurely pace.

The Hvar Route sets sail south from the base at Zaton, near Sibenik, out to Rogoznica, Split and then venturing on to Hvar's second largest town of Starigrad with its origins in ancient Greece. It is worth visiting the islands of Brac, Solta, Pakleni, Viz – plenty of choice on your free sail day. The flotilla then joins again in Primosten before sailing back to Zaton.

The Kornati Route sets sail out from Zaton to discover the southern Kornati islands. Start your flotilla with a punch party on the quayside at Prvic Luka, then on to sample food in one of the excellent fish restaurants on the quay in Murter. Sali is located at the northern end of Telasica Bay with a choice of restaurant quays or mooring buoys. Along the way we visit Piskera at the heart of the Kornati national park. Climb the hill above the mooring as the views are stunning!

A trip up the river to Skradin on your free sailing day is a must see for all. Enjoy an excursion to the Krka waterfalls before returning back to Zaton. A two-week cruise combines both the Southern and Kornati route.

Croatia Dubrovnik & Montenegro Flotilla

The Korcula Route sails a circular cruise from Dubrovnik Marina cruising the Elaphite Islands of Kolocep, Lopud and Sipan, all with small communities and picturesque harbours on the North Western or South Eastern ends of each Island. Explore Mljet Island and the near land locked coves of Okuklje and Prozura, before sailing into the small archipelago that leads to Polace. We would recommend a visit to the scenic lakes and the monastery of St.Marija at the North Western end of Mljet before sailing on to the Idyllic historic port of Korcula.

The Montenegro Route also sets off from Dubrovnik Marina heading south to Cavtat with picturesque waterfront promenade. An early morning start will be rewarded with spectacular views of the mountain back drop that surrounds the Bay of Kotor. From Tivat, the regional capital we set sail for the Venetian town of Kotor at the far end of the bay. Time to explore this wonderful historical town before the flotilla heads back toward Dubrovnik.

Balearics Bareboat Charter

www.sunscapeyachting.co.uk

Mallorca, Menorca, Ibiza and Formentera form the Spanish Balearic islands and provide a wonderful all year round sailing destination. The Balearics offer favourable sailing conditions and a choice of both sheltered and more challenging cruising areas. The spectacular scenery of pine-topped cliffs, white sandy beaches and picture postcard harbours, each with numerous shops and restaurants, provide an excellent sailing holiday experience. The sailing breezes in Mallorca are largely thermal, with onshore breezes in the morning as the land heats, with the opposite in the afternoon. Average sunshine of more than 9 hours a day make for a superb setting for your holiday.

Mallorca Flotilla

From the yacht base at Palma de Mallorca, the flotilla heads south east to the popular town of Sa Rapita, adjacent to a wonderful sandy beach. The next stop is Cala D'Or with its unspoilt original charm still counted by many as the most beautiful 'Cala' on the coast of Mallorca. Further along the way visit Porto Cristo with its original roman harbour and basilica to explore, and then venture to Cala Mondrago right in the heart of the Mondrago national park before returning back to Palma. If you are sailing for a second week, our flotilla crew will be happy to discuss a bareboat itinerary for you, suggesting some great stops, tailor made to your requirements. Our crew will also keep you up to date with weather forecasts and be happy to help you during your bareboat holiday. We suggest including the neighbouring island of Menorca.

What's included:
Support of the flotilla lead yacht and crew
Comfort Pack – Includes Starter pack of basic provisions, End cleaning, Bed linen, Diesel Fuel
What's not included:

Additionally for sailing in Croatia you need a VHF radio license. In all cases original certificates should be taken with you. Should you have any concerns regarding the suitability of a particular holiday, yacht or cruising area, then please call our reservation team, who will be pleased to discuss the options available to you.

ITINERARIES

The flotilla cruise itineraries shown in this brochure are intended as a general guide. Your Flotilla skipper has responsibility for the safety of all persons, the vessels and its equipment at all times, he/she is permitted to vary the itinerary sailed if in their opinion the weather or operating conditions make it necessary. Many of the operated holidays rely on us or the operator acquiring a minimum number of participants, from time to time we may need to consolidate flotillas or cruises.

For full Booking Conditions please visit www.sunscapeyachting.co.uk

SECURITY DEPOSITS

A Security deposit may be required for the yacht charter. You will be advised of the deposit required at the time of booking. The deposit is fully refundable less any amount for losses or damages incurred.

Sunscape and other charter companies allow you to pay for a Yacht Security Insurance (YSI) or Damage Waiver before you travel, this will permit you to claim a full refund of any deductions made from the Security deposit. (Your Holiday Confirmation will specify if you have taken this insurance out).

More information on Sunscape's Yacht Security Insurance (YSI) and the Security Deposit scheme is provided with your Holiday Confirmation and can be found on our website under Info & Booking Conditions.

BOOKING CONDITIONS & BOOKING FORM

You can view and may download our Booking Conditions from our website (Info & Booking Conditions) or request one to be posted to you. We will use the information that you provide on this form to assist Sunscape, our agents and persons in authority responsible for the provision of your holiday arrangements. It is therefore important that the party leader making the booking completes the sailing experience section on the booking form and includes all crew names and passport detail.

Sunscape cannot accept liability or responsibility for expenses incurred by you, should a person in authority deem it necessary to provide a professional Skipper to assist you in sailing/motoring the chartered vessel during your holiday.
