

Turkey Flotilla

Fethiye Flotilla

The Fethiye Gulf Flotillas set sail from the convenience of Ece marina to explore the beautiful fjord like Bay of Fethiye with its myriad of secluded coves and island anchorages. Each evening see the flotilla tying up to a rickety wooden jetty leading ashore to a bohemian style family run restaurant. There will be plenty of opportunity to swim and snorkel off the boats each evening whilst anchored surrounded by shoals and ancient ruins.

Whether you choose to sail the Karacaoren or Cold Water Bay route or combine the two routes for a fascinating and relaxing two week flotilla, there will be many highlights along the way. Enjoy the likes of such restaurants at Karacaoren, with its elevated dining area providing spectacular views. The bay is encircled by shoals, so take a swim with the resident turtles. Or perhaps climb the hillside out of the cove at Cold Water Bay to marvel at the deserted Greek village of Kayakoy. Also a must for most crews is to explore at sunset the spectacular 1000 year old ruins at Gemiler Adasi, now a National Park.

By mid-week the flotilla is heading back to Fethiye Bay where we dine Al fresco at such popular haunts as Sarsala, Kapi Creek, 22 Fathoms Cove or perhaps Tomb Bay, names that hint of ancient times. Distances are short within the bay itself, so there is always time for a leisurely lunch stop, a swim or to try your hand at paddle boarding. The wind strengthens towards early afternoon so no one misses out on the sailing.
